

1922, ch. 170, sec. 1.

545. The Mayor and Council of the Town of Kensington in the County of Montgomery, are hereby authorized, directed, empowered and required to expend any and all money that they may receive from the sale of the water and sewer system of the Town of Kensington in Montgomery County for building, repair and maintenance of the public streets, squares, avenues, lanes, alleys, parkings, bridges, sidewalks, pavements and culverts in said Town of Kensington and for no other purpose whatsoever.

1922, ch. 170, sec. 2.

546. If any officer of said Town shall in anywise, directly or indirectly violate any of the provisions of this Act, he shall upon conviction thereof be fined a sum not more than $500.00 and the costs of the prosecution and in the default of the payment of the fine and costs to be imprisoned in the Montgomery County jail for a period not to exceed one year.

LAYTONSVILLE.

1892, ch. 497, sec. 1. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 367.

547. The citizens of the town of Laytonsville, in Montgomery county, are hereby constituted a body corporate by the name of the "Commissioners of Laytonsville," and by that name may sue and be sued, and have and use a common seal.

1892, ch. 497, sec. 2. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 368.

548. The corporate limits of said town shall be as follows: Beginning on the south side of Laytonsville at a point where the Olney road intersects the road leading from Laytonsville to Gaithersburg, thence by a straight line, in a northeasterly direction, through the lands of H. B. Penn, H. Weeks, T. L. Bell, Joseph Simpson and U. H. Griffith to the summit of stone quarry hill on the road leading from Laytonsville to Unity; thence by a straight line in a northwesterly direction, through the lands of U. H. Griffith and W. B. Mobley, to a point on the road leading from Laytonsville to Damascus, marked by a gate just north of the house occupied by B. Taylor; thence by a straight line in a southwesterly direction, through the lands of W. B. Mobley, J. M. Gue and I. G. Warfield to the summit of the hill west of the lane leading to I. G. Warfield's dwelling house on the road leading from Laytonsville to Goshen; thence by a straight line in a southeasterly direction through the lands of G. E. Gaither and E. O. Brown to the place of beginning.

1892, ch. 497, sec. 3. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 369.

549. The male citizens of Laytonsville of the age of twenty-one years and upward, who have resided in said town for six months next preceding the election, shall on the first Monday in May, annually elect three freeholders who have resided in said town for six months next preceding said election, as commissioners of Laytonsville, to serve for one year or until
